AUSTRALIA TO HAVE WIRELESS SYSTEM

Commonwealth Plans Stations to Cost £42,000—Local Station Will Become Important.

At a cost of at least £42,000 the commonwealth of Australia is to establish a great wireless system. It will include stations in New Zealand, Fiji, New Hebrides, Solomon Islands, Ocean Island, Gilbert and Ellice groups, Tonga and Papua. High power stations will be installed at Sydney in Australia, Doubtless Bay in New Zealand, Suva in Fiji, and Ocean Island.

Recently Manager Balch of the local system received a request from the Australian government for a complete plan of his system, which was sent on.
With the installation of the system in Australia and in islands of the commonwealth to the northward, the station here at Kahuku will become one of the most important stations in the Pacific.

As Lloyd's has ordered that all passenger vessels must carry wireless all ships coming into this port carrying passengers will be equipped with apparatus within a few months, and the Kahuku station will be able to have communication with Australian ships as well as with those passing to and from the Orient from the Pacific coast.

DILLINGHAM-GAYLORD LUAU CELEBRATION

On account of the marriage of Waiter Dillingham and Miss Gaylord, which is to be celebrated today in Italy, the officers and employees of the Hawaiian Dredging Company held a grand luau at Pearl Harbor yesterday.

Before departing for Europe, Mr.
fect that the employees, if they so desired, might celebrate the event yesterday and they did it with a vim.

There were about five hundred who joined in the celebration and the luau was given in a new pavilion erected near the St. Francis hotel, as the principal dormitory at the dredging town is called. A large number of people from Honolulu went down for the festivities. B. F. Dillingham, the father of the groom and Harold F. Dillingham, his brother, were present. The former made an address which was appropriate to the occasion.

FILE AMENDED COMPLAINT.

Kamama Iona et al., plaintiffs in the suit against Mark P. Robinson et als., for the possession of certain property in Honolulu, filed an amended complaint against the defendants Saturday.

In the first complaint filed the plaintiffs did not specify in detail where the property was located in which they claimed one-eighth interest as the heirs of Elizabeth, the wife and mother.

There are five pieces of land to which claim was made in the new complaint, two lots specified being on Fort street, one containing 508 and the other 521 square fathoms; one lot in the Nuuanu Valley containing 578 acres; one on the southwest corner of Nuuanu and King streets with approximately 10,828 square feet; and one on Hotel street containing 424 square fathoms, 20 feet.

The complaint was filed by Achi and Harrison, attorneys for the plaintiffs.

DIVORCES GRANTED.

Roseline Kapukini was granted a divorce Saturday morning from her husband, John Kapukini, on the ground of no maintenance. The couple were married in Honolulu October 28, 1908, and lived together until January of this year, since which time the husband has failed to support his wife.

A Japanese divorce was granted in Judge Robinson's court Saturday morning, when the court decreed that Ko-to Morikawa should have an absolute divorce from her husband, Kozuchi.
In March of 1907 at Yamaguchi, Japan the couple were married and they came to Honolulu in November of the same year. Since arrival the wife has always lived in this city, but in January, 1908, the husband deserted her and has not lived with her since that time.

Alber K. Hu has been appointed guardian for Halimala by Judge Robinson.

CITIZENSHIP POSTPONED.

Four aliens who at one time or another have made application for naturalization in Honolulu had their cases dismissed Saturday morning in the Federal court because of their failure to appear on several days when the cases were set for hearing.

These men whose cases were dismissed were Rudolph Kurella, Charles D. McCacheron, George F. Rodick and Stephen Andrews.

Three others whose applications for papers were before the court had their cases continued until the next naturalization day, which will be the last Saturday in May.

Joseph J. G. Sarker, Levi Liber-mann and Olaf E. Ellansen were the men whose cases were continued.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

A gentleman residing at Dunedin, N.Z., writes under date Jan. 7, 1907:

"It is with gratitude I write you that I have now a splendid head of hair, both thick and very soft, all owing to my having used your wonderful Hair Vigor. I was almost bald headed before I used the Hair Vigor. I still use it once a day, rubbing it well into the roots of the hair. I used to wear a skull-cap, and I am very grateful to Ayer's Hair Vigor for the improvement it has made in my looks."

Be warned in time. Use Ayer's Hair Vigor and preserve your youth.
